

Figure 50 is a grid-based diagram showing two symbols. The grid is 50 units high and 100 units wide. The left symbol is a tall, narrow rectangle with a triangle on top, spanning from the bottom to the top of the grid. The right symbol is a shorter, wider rectangle with a triangle on top, spanning from the middle to the top of the grid. The symbols are drawn with black lines on a white grid.

